VETERAN ADMIRAL DEAD.

FIGHT WITH PERUVIAN REBEL.

"HUASCAR" AFFAIR RECALLED.

LONDON, October 22.

The death has occurred of Admiral Sir Algernon de Horsey.

[Admiral Sir Algernon Frederick Rous de Horsey, K.C.B., has been Deputy Governor of the Isle of Wight since 1913. Admiral de Horsey, who was 95 years of age, first saw service on the coast of Syria in 1840. He was senior naval officer during the Jamaica insurrection in 1885 and the Fenian raids on the Lakes of Canada the following year. From 1871 to 1875 he was A.D.C. to the Queen. From 1872 to 1875 he was Commodore in the West Indies, and from 1876 to 1879 Commander-in-Chief in the Pacific. In the flagship "Shah" he engaged the Peruvian rebel ironclad "Huascar," forcing her to surrender to the Peruvian authorities. When this action was questioned in Parliament, the Attorney-General (Sir J. Holker) said, "Huascar having committed acts which made her an enemy of Great Britain, Admiral de Horsey was justified in what he did." From 1884 to 1885 Admiral de Horsey commanded the Channel Squadron. He was placed on the retired list in 1892. His recreations became county administration, yachting, astronomy and mechanics work.]

NGOR'S ECONOMIC DESIGNS.

DISCOURAGING REPORTS RECEIVED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 22.

Details of the Turkish economic programme filtering through from Argos reveal efforts planning to transfer the Ottoman public debt to Greece as an indemnity. The National Assembly has already disavowed the debt contracted by Constantinople after the armistice and has now decided to wipe out all commercial concessions and contracts from which foreigners in future will be rigidly excluded. The foregoing, if admitted at the peace conference, will effectively strangle foreign trade.

BOWLS.

NEW GREEN AT KOWLOON.

The members of the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club, their wives and friends formed a large attendance on Saturday afternoon at the opening of the new bowling green, which has been laid out by the Dock Company for the use of their employees.

After a tea planting ceremony, to commemorate the occasion, Mrs. R. M. Dyer, wife of the Chief Manager, performed the opening ceremony. Mr. D. Keith, Chairman of the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club, introduced Mrs. Dyer to those present. In the course of his remarks he referred to the fact that during the war it was thought that by increasing the hours to 17 or 18 a day in the dockyards a greater output would be secured. It was found to be a fallacious theory, however, to deprive men wholly of recreation. They had to thank Mr. Dyer for his sporting instinct in recommending the Company to lay out this ground for them. Mr. Keith then referred to the famous story of Sir Francis Drake and his refusal to fight the Spanish Armada before he had finished his game of bowls. He listened to add, however, amid laughter, that if a ship came into the dockyard there was no reason to fear that the men would act likewise, but that they would at once cease their play and only resume after the work had been finished. He then concluded by asking Mrs. Dyer to plant the tree which lay had for the occasion.

After the ceremony Mr. D. Keith presented Mrs. Dyer with an ivory jack, which she threw along the bowling green, thus formally opening the ground for play. The "jack" bore a silver plate, upon which was inscribed the words "Presented to Mrs. R. M. Dyer at the opening of the Kowloon Dock Bowling Green, 21st October, 1922." The bowling green is full sized and consists of seven rinks altogether. In addition to this splendid green, two miniature clock golf courses have been laid out, and a tennis court.

During the afternoon the band of the 102nd Grenadiers played musical selections. The catering was done by Messrs. Wismah's.

TRADE WITH RUSSIA.

GERMAN AGREEMENT.

BERLIN, October 22.

A message from Moscow states that the Soviet Government has ratified the agreement with the German industrial works whereby a Russo-German trading company will be established with a capital of 300,000 gold roubles and will have a trade concession for import and export. The consortium will grant the company goods to a credit of 7,500,000 gold roubles and a further 5,000,000 to the Russian Government.

HOME POLITICS.

CENTRE PARTY PLAN.

CHURCHILL'S INTENTIONS.

LONDON, October 22.

Mr. Winston Churchill's continued belief in the possibility of a centre party emerges from a letter he has sent his constituents at Dundee from the sick-bed declaring that he proposes to stand as a Liberal free trader but to co-operate freely with other minded Progressives and Conservatives in defending the country and the empire against the Socialist and Communist menace on the one hand and downright reaction on the other.

TERRIBLE TENEMENT FIRE.

INCENDIARISM SUSPECTED.

NEW YORK, October 21.

Fourteen people were mortally burned and 20 injured in a fire in a tenement house in the city. The fire is believed to have been the result of incendiaryism.

TWO ARMED MEN.

ANOTHER KOWLOON HOME ROBBERED.

DRAIN PIPE CLIMB.

No. 176, Coronation Road, Kowloon, the residence of Mr. Lam Chin-wo, a former Canton official was entered by two men about 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

The intruders climbed a drain pipe in the verandah and gained access to Mr. Lam's bedroom by cutting away a pane of glass and pushing back the bolt on the inside. They were armed with revolvers.

One of the men seized Mr. Lam and after threatening to shoot him, stole a diamond ring worth $1,000. The other man turned his attention to Mr. Lam's wife. Obtaining her keys, he opened a chest of drawers and stole $95 in cash and jewellery worth $30. The robbers, escaped after binding and gagging their victims.

HOW TO PAY AMERICA.

PROPOSAL TO CEDE PART OF CANADA.

Mr. O. Macgregor, a New York member, speaking in the House of Representatives proposed, as a means of Great Britain liquidating her war debt to the United States, the cession to the United States of that part of Canada lying about the Great Lakes.

A Wuchow correspondent writes: On Thursday last about 4 p.m., a number of soldiers were seen hanging about one of the pyres at Wuchow and snatches became visible as to what was going forward. Nothing happened, however, until 8 p.m. when a boat appeared drifting down the river and was pulled alongside the pyre. This boat also contained soldiers. There was a considerable amount of shooting. Later carrier coolies arrived and began to unload the boat. Enquiries were made and the boat was found to contain 110 chests of opium valued at 5,000 taels a chest. The drug had been seized by the Military.

LINER ROGUES.INTERNATIONAL ROBBER SYSTEM.

A gang of international rogues
operating between New York, Southampton, London, and Paris are giving the police of these places a great deal of trouble.

While crossing the Atlantic they take particular care not to arouse any kind of suspicion on the part of their fellow-passengers by indulging in card tricks or sharp practices.
They assume the role of independent men going to Europe or to America for a brief holiday, and gain the confidence of their travelling companions.

All these men desire to know is who are aboard the liner and where they are going. On reaching Southampton or Cherbourg the men disembark with the particular passengers they are shadowing and go with them to Paris or London as the case may be.

On arriving at the capital the passengers are then handed over to the "residential operators," who promptly act to work to rob them on lines suggested by the travelling gang who after five or six days acquaintance with their victims know their peculiarities and habits.

It is now thought that the man who stole a diamond ring valued at £350 from two assistants of Messrs.
Mappin and Webb while they were showing him some gems at the Piccadilly Hotel, W., belongs to the gang.

"Mr. Bolman, of New York City," as he described himself, is a man of about 5ft. 11in. in height, of medium build, with a mass of black hair well brushed back from the forehead and a small black moustache. He was smartly dressed in a dark lounge suit, either blue or grey, and his complexion was rather swarthy.

He is not known to the hotel staff, and the police have no records of men tallying with his description.

ease. For sale by all Chemists and

"TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE"

HONGKONG, MONDAY, OCT. 23, 1922.

LLOYD-GEORGE.

The New York World, alone among the newspapers whose comment on the British political crisis Reuter has epitomised, seems to have grasped the personal significance of Mr. Lloyd George's resignation, expressing the opinion that "things could not have happened better" for the former Prime Minister.

unhindered leader. The dramatic Carlton Club meeting gave him his chance to secure this essential freedom and "throw himself on the people." This opportunity he was quick to seize, and now he is showing himself equally quick to exploit it. If his Manchester speech was designed to make him thrice armed by getting his "blow in first," his Leeds speech has now been used to follow it up with vigour and determination. With his slogan "National interests first against more party gain," Mr. Lloyd George, the skilled and adroit politician, may yet win the day, in spite of party intrigues and hostile Press criticism. The public has a short memory and it dearly loves a good fighter. Mr. Lloyd George, alone among the European leaders, has survived the political perils of war and the even greater political perils of peace. Will he finally survive the perils of party politics?

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Miss Aileen Woods is a passenger by the "Shinyo Maru" arriving from San Francisco to-morrow.

Passengers returning to the Colony by the s.s. "Nankin" included Mr. J. D. Lloyd, Captain Stewart, Dunn and Smith; Lt. Lake D.S.O., R.N., Pay. Lt. Laybourne R.N.

Trade is improving between Wuchow and Hongkong. It seems that trade between Nanning and Wuchow will reopen shortly as military conditions are improving.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending October 7, 1922, amounted to 69,301 tons and the sales during the period to 75,938 tons.

Mrs. F. C. Jerkin and children and Mrs. A. W. Butterfield arrived from England yesterday by the N.Y.K. "Hakozaki Maru" and Mrs. Crockett by the P. & O. steamer "Nankin."

Among the passengers who arrived by the "Hakozaki Maru" were Mrs. and two Misses Capell, Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell, Mr. A. B. Nielson, Miss M. Stewart, Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Wells.

The wedding is announced of Mr. C. H. Godfrey, M. Inst. C. E., late Commissioner of Public Works Shanghai, to Leonie, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bullions Moody, of Fawley, Southampton.

Messrs. Leggett and Myers (Tobacco) Company's godown at No. 1, Connaught Road Central, was broken into during Friday night, and two cases of "Old Mill" cigarettes, worth $500 were carried away.

The P. and O. steamer "Nankin" which arrived here from Hongkong yesterday, made her first call after a lapse of about two years. The vessel was on the Calcutta run for some time and was also laid up at Plymouth for many months owing to the shipping slump.

Lieutenant E. I. Peyton has been appointed to the gunboat "Hollyhock" on the China Station. He was recently serving on the "Dryad," qualifying in navigation. Some ratings for distribution amongst the ships of the China Station will be shortly dispatched from England.

Miss A. V. Smith, who for the past two years has been secretary to the American Trade Commissioner in Shanghai, has been appointed Assistant Trade Commissioner by the U.S. Secretary of Commerce. This is the first time that a lady has been given such an appointment.

Sir Charles Addis, K. C. M. G., Chairman of the London Committee of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, was removed from the nursing home, where he recently underwent an operation, to his own house on September 18. Sir Charles bore the transfer very well and is progressing favourably.

Motor car No. 373, owned by Mr. Fred Ellis, was proceeding along Des Voeux Road West about 7 p.m. yesterday. Passing the entrance of the Tai Ping T. street, its way was obstructed by a number of pedestrians crossing the road. The driver, swerving on to the tram lines, ran into two rickshas, knocking one over and throwing the fare, a Chinese heavily out. The man was hurt, but was taken along in the car, but got out near the Western Market, stubbornly refusing to go to the hospital. His injuries did not appear to be serious as he was able to walk away. Mr. Ellis and a couple of friends were in the car at the time of the accident.

"PETER PAN"

CHILDREN'S PLAY AT THE PEAK CLUB.

CAST.

The Peters Joyce Penman.
Yvonne Shenton.
The Wendys Hilary Lowe.
Iris Plodden.
Tinkerbell Mary Sanders.
Dawn Salter.
Others Fairies Betty Bromwich.

Michael Wendy's (Dawn Salter).
John Brothers Betty Bromwich.

The Peak Club on Friday and Saturday was the scene of two charmingly staged performances of Peter Pan and Wendy.

Scenes from the well known play were shown as tableaux, the whole blended as a story, with dances and songs as interludes. The seven children who took part obviously enjoyed the performance as much as anyone present, which is saying a good deal, for the audience on both days was enthusiastic, to say the least of it.

Joyce Penman and Yvonne Shenton were a contrast in hair and dark Peter Pans. Dressed alike, in fawn coloured hose and bright blue doublet, with quaint elfin caps, each one looked a typical sprite.

The Wendys too were charming in simple white blue bespiced cotton frocks with wreaths of leaves in their hair, as also Tinkerbell in pale pink georgette edged with tiny bells.

Dawn Salter and Betty Bromwich one in blue and the other in pale mauve georgette had glittering silver wings and star-tipped wands, and cosy-looking sleeping suits. Michael and John. The setting was simple and most artistic, particularly the woodland scene when the ground was strewn with red leaves and brightly coloured birds fluttered in the air. Then in the scene with Tinkerbell and the fairies at home the Teddy Bears and dolls scattered about and the clothes line hung with tiny coloured garments gave a home-like touch.

The piece of every figure in the tableaux was charming and, although each tableau was shown three times there was hardly a movement to be discerned. The lighting which worked up in each case from dim subdued twilight to the full light, dying down again sometimes, as in Tinkerbell's dance to the subdued light again, was excellently done.

The dance in the second tableau was most realistic. Wendy walking along in the wood was surprised to find fairies peeping out from behind the trees. Peter, entering, showed his delight in discovering his playmate, by a long drawn "Ooh" and tripped around, peering at a fairy with leaves and inducing Wendy to join him in a light-spirited manner.

Tinkerbell's dance was particularly graceful and artistically carried out whilst an arresting and original dance was that of the "Mended Shadow."

In this Peter and Wendy were closely followed by two shadowy figures in misty ragged grey and each movement was faithfully copied. Peter's dismay too when he found that he had lost his shadow was most realistic.

Finally Peter and Wendy were seen in their birds' nests boats, each with a shirt fastened up for a sail, wending their way home and the whole ended in a dance of happiness. The children, carrying tiny coloured lanterns, surrounded Tinkerbell, grouping themselves around her as a final tableau.

Mrs. Penman, as the originator, deserved all the applause which she got and she was ably seconded by Mrs. Sanders who arranged the music and wrote the programme in story form.

Mrs. Adams also helped with the music. Mrs. Aubrey played the violin and Miss Reece sang charmingly.

The Club was filled to overflowing on the Friday afternoon with an enthusiastic crowd of children, whilst parents and adults hovered on the outskirts.

On Saturday night the grown ups were equally appreciative, though they did not show their appreciation by laughing and singing and chattering to the excitement of the youngsters did on the Friday.

At the end there were loud cries of "Peter" and "Wendy" and "Michael" and "John." As the broil's did not appear so, a minute it was mentioned that they might have got a basket of chocolates and a fan and fans too were presented to those who had got up and assisted at the delightful performance.

The Naval Yard staff must have made an astonishingly large "coup" for the M.O.L., at the same time affording considerable pleasure to all those who witnessed "Peter Pan and Wendy."

WORLD WANDERER.

RESTS IN HONGKONG.

JOE MANNIX FROM MINNEAPOLIS.

With that wealth of wavy, white hair, that long white moustache, and those kindly, humorous brown eyes beaming benevolently from under bushy white brows, the delightful old gentleman who dropped into the China Mail office the other afternoon might have been a younger brother of Mark Twain. Given an old-fashioned frock coat and a flowing necktie in place of his tropical suit, he might have been mistaken for one of those dignified old Virginian Colonels whom one sees sometimes on the moving picture screen.

In truth he was Joe Mannix—Joseph T. Mannix of Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S.A., ex member of the State legislature, ex State printer and now a wanderer fancy-free upon the face of the earth. People travel around the world for varied reasons. Some do it for a bet, and boast afterwards how they compassed the earth on a ten cent piece. Joe Mannix is not one of those. "I have not come," he said, "to sell anything, or to buy anything, but to yarn a little, smile a little and to make a friend or two." It is not the first time he has been in Hongkong. His first visit was made somewhere round about the time Queen Victoria was celebrating her Diamond Jubilee. His last one was a few years ago and a China Mail man of those days wrote that "intellect and savoir-vivre oozed out of him like molasses out of sugar and you can't be in his company for ten minutes without wishing to follow him like the Pied Piper."

He is a remarkable, a unique personality. He has been buried once in a marriage—by the newspapers. In his gentle-toned, musical voice, betraying just the shadow of an American drawl, he will talk to you with the most discerning frankness of Siberia and Siam, of Borneo and of British India, of Ceylon, China and Cambodia of the Antipodes, of Europe, of Africa, of the Salama, Mozambique, Zanzibar—

"Where haven't you been, Mr. Mannix?" asked the China Mail man at last, agape at the extent of the old gentleman's peregrinations. "Well," he replied, "I haven't been to South America yet but I expect to look around there before old Minneapolis gets me again. Just now I've come up from the Dutch East Indies—a wonderful place—and after I've been here a week or two I guess I'll go right on to Shanghai, Peking, Tientsin and perhaps dip up some of my old Sibirian friends again. But first I want to have a look around some of your Southern rivers and perhaps take a look at Hongay and Haiphong."

Asked which he thought the most interesting country of them all, Mr. Mannix promptly replied that British India was. "I suppose," he said, "it is the queer, oriental mystic atmosphere of the place that fascinates me. Then there is its immensity and the lovely natural scenery. And, from the lordly, priestly Brahmin to the untouchable, unteachable lower castes, they are a wonderful people."

China is "this queer but wonderful old land," for Mr. Mannix and he thinks Hongkong a fascinating city. "Of course," he said, "it has altered some since the Hongkong Hotel was on the waterfront but as I came up the hill to your office, I was glad to see that one thing had not changed—you still have your bright little show of flowers at the bottom of the street." He thought we Hongkong people were to be congratulated that, cramped for room as we were, we could still find a corner for our flower-sellers.

Of Mr. Mannix it is said that he makes a friend with every handshake. Certainly he found his way into a niche in the China Mail man's heart when, the talk having drifted to Australia, the old gentleman spoke in affectionately reminiscent vein of his stay in the C.M. man's birthplace in the far away bush. But Mr. Mannix is no mere sayer of the graceful thing, just for the sake of saying it. Asked what he thought of that appealing quality of frankness which is one of his most charming attributes, "I would like," he said, "to speak happily and hopefully of your great island continent because your people treated me so well. You have your great wide, free open spaces and your wonderful climate but you Australians have a curious psychological attitude of mind, a sort of complaisant self-centredness."

"But may that not be accounted for," the C.M. man suggested, "by their isolated geographical position?" "Of fifteen possible reasons that stand in the way of Australia becoming the great country she ought to be," the old gentleman declared "is one." But for the splendid contingents of young men you sent away to the war Australia would, in her ideas, be quite provincial. I suppose

TRAM HOLD-UP.

DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

Chan Tak-hing, the accountant of the Chong Ku Sugar Packing Co., of No. 54, Quarry Bay, was held up in a tram car at North Point in broad daylight on Saturday morning and robbed of $1,000 in cash, the "pickers' wages," contained in a small bag he was carrying.

Chan had been to the bank to draw the money. With a friend, he was returning to the shop in tram car No. 11. Two other Chinese also went to the top deck, and sat a few seats behind Chan and his companion.

When the car was nearing the Ming Yuen Gardens the two men suddenly drew revolvers, at the same time, a third man forced the driver to stop the car. Two other men travelling in third class had no difficulty in preventing anyone from attracting attention.

As soon as the car had stopped, Chan was dragged out by the robbers and taken to the hillside at the back of Ming Yuen Gardens where he was relieved of his bag.

Four of the robbers made their escape up the hillside, while the fifth remained on the tram long enough to give his confederates time to get clear. He then ordered the tram to proceed jumping off at the spot where the other men had turned up the hill from the road.

that if a vote were taken 75 per cent. of your people would favour retaining the "White Australia" idea but it is a policy which is to my mind untenable."

Carefully the interviewer steered the conversation to other topics. With Mr. Mannix it is possible to do that. So well-filled is his reservoir of experiences that to mention the name of a place is to turn on a tap from which reminiscence and anecdote flow in a steady stream. He has a remarkable vocabulary and will present to you his impressions of the atmosphere of a place or the characteristics of a people in a string of adjectives five or six words long. Though his journeyings have taken him over many thousands, many tens of thousands of miles, Mr. Mannix feels embarrassed when people refer to him as one who has scoured the globe. "There is a whole raft of places that I haven't been to yet. All I am doing is just fooling around and knocking a little variety out of life in my own quiet way."

Be that as it may this is in his 60th year, the old gentleman's record would show. It is five years since he was in Minneapolis and it will be another year before he sets foot there again. His savings during his decade of office as State printer of Minnesota have made him independent and he has no family responsibilities. For ocean-travel he prefers tramp steamers because life aboard them is "natural and simple and easy" and because "there you can go up on to the bridge at midnight and talk to the man at the wheel about the stars."

In one other respect besides his amazing store of topographical knowledge is Joe Mannix rich beyond rubies. His circle of friends is worldwide. Proof of that lay in the bulky little package of "credentials" he had tucked under his arm. They were not "credentials" in the ordinary sense. They were letters from press clubs and newspaper men from all over the world and he produced them "just to give you an idea of what a fine lot of boys they are over there."

But what testified more eloquently than all else to the chain of friendship with which this lovable old character has girdled the globe was the large batch of letters that was awaiting his arrival at the office of the local American Consul-General. Over a hundred of them there were. From the seven seas they brought cheery messages of greeting and goodwill to speed him on his way and the emotion with which he spoke of them showed how much they meant to him.

It will take Mr. Mannix a day or two to read his correspondence and when he has done that he means to sit down in his room at the Palace Hotel, across at Kowloon, and answer every one of them. "They have written nice long letters to me," he said, "and they will expect nice long ones in return."

If then, crossing over on the Kowloon ferry one day, you find yourself engaged in conversation by a tall, spare old gentleman, with white and wavy hair bushing out from under his hat and with features just like Mark Twain's, you will know that it is Joe Mannix. And of him a newspaper man noted for what Mr. Mannix would call his "flat-footed frankness" has penned this neatly appropriate epigram:

"I don't know just how many millions of white citizens there are in the United States but I do know that none of them can possibly be a whiter man than Joseph T. Mannix."

POINTS ABOUT PIRACY.

ATTORNEY GENERAL EXPLAINS.

"SUI YICK" AFFAIR.

Some interesting points about piracy were explained by the Attorney General (the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp K.C.) this morning when four men were charged at the Criminal Session before the Chief Justice (Sir William R. Davies) with having committed that crime aboard the s.s. "Sui Yick" on August 1.

The charge of piracy, Mr. Kemp said, was a very unusual one. As far as he could ascertain there had not been a charge of piracy tried in England for over 100 years and he could not, personally, recall a case here. The penalty for the offence was, he thought, popularly supposed to be death but he thought the jury would be relieved to hear that that was not true. Piracy, as a matter of fact, was merely robbery on the high seas, within the jurisdiction which used to be exercised in the old days by the Lord High Admiral of England. The latter had jurisdiction all over the high seas and even up foreign rivers to try offences on British ships, wherever the British ship was. He also had jurisdiction to try charges of piracy on ships of any nation. Piracy was looked upon with such horror by civilized nations that it was tryable by any country no matter what country the ship concerned belonged to.

In this case, the Attorney General explained, the ship was Chinese and sailed under the Chinese flag. If it had been a British ship they might simply have charged these men with armed robbery. But as it was a Chinese ship they had charged them with piracy, an offence against the laws of civilization.

Mr. Kemp went on to tell how during her voyage from Hongkong to San Mei, between Hongkong and Swatow, the "Sui Yick" was held up by pirates who overpowered the guards and robbed the passengers and ship of money and articles of value. Evidence of identification would be given by three guards, one of whom was shot and nearly lost his life. The Captain was held up with a revolver in his wheel where he was until the pirates had gone. Someone pointed a revolver at the Chief Engineer and said that if he did not keep the engine going he would shoot him dead; the chief engineer kept the engine going.

The boat continued on its way towards Sam Kok, at which place three small boats came alongside and took off the pirates with their booty. The four prisoners were arrested in a raid made by Sub-Inspector Shaftain at Siwanho.

"After formal evidence as to plans and charts had been tendered the jury were taken along to inspect the "Sui Yick" at Blake Pier."

MOTOR ACCIDENT.

COOLIE KNOCKED DOWN AND FATALITY INJURED.

A motor accident on the Chung-shawan Road yesterday afternoon resulted in the death of a young coolie.

Motor car No. 103, owned by the Eagle Garage, Kowloon, was passing a footpath leading up the hill when, the deceased ran out and made for the other side of the road a couple of feet in front of the car. The driver applied his brakes but it was impossible to stop the car in time. The man was caught by the left mudguard and knocked over. The car continued another couple of feet before it came to a standstill, and the left wheel ran over the coolie's body. The injured man was taken to the Kwong Wah Hospital in the car, but he died a few minutes after admittance, without regaining consciousness.

U.S. ASIATIC FLEET.

The 4th Division of destroyers in the United States Asiatic Fleet left Hongkong yesterday morning, for Manila.

This morning, about 11 o'clock, the 43rd division arrived, comprising the U.S.S. "Black Hawk," flagship of destroyers, the U.S.S. "Stewart," flotilla leader, and the six destroyers, "Peary," "Pillsbury," "Popo," "Truxton," "John D. Ford," and "Paul Jones."

The U.S.S. "Huron," flagship of Admiral Anderson is expected either to-morrow or the following day.

A disastrous fire gutted the Straits Steamship Company's Stores godown at Tandjong Pagar, Singapore, on October 14. The fire commenced about 4 a.m. and was still smouldering at 1 p.m. The damage is estimated at $250,000.

SATURDAY'S MATCH.

MANILA AGAIN BEATEN.

Manila again suffered defeat to the tune of 4 goals to 2 when they met a Civilian IV at Causeway Bay on Saturday afternoon.

It was a very interesting game, however, and Hongkong can thank Boyd for its victory, for without him, the game would undoubtedly have ended the other way about.

The teams lined up as follows:—
Hongkong (Civilians).—Mr. P. A. Cox, Mr. J. G. Lyon, Mr. W. D. Fiddes-Wilson, Mr. C. C. Boyd (captain).

Mr. McPherson who has just recovered from an attack of fever, was an interested spectator at Saturday's game.

The ground was greasy, and Manila was further handicapped through their ponies being somewhat tired, playing their third hard game in the week.

Perhaps this had something to do with their defeat by the Civilian, who were not nearly as strong as the interport team which turned out for Hongkong on Wednesday.

Mr. Boyd played an excellent game, and his long hitting was far more accurate than in the big match. He performed the "hat trick" on Saturday and was responsible for three of the four goals scored.

Manila's team work which was so much commented upon in the Services' match was badly disguised, and they could not bring off any combination play on Saturday.

Hongkong's combination also left a lot to be desired, but they got along better than their opponents.

Mr. White made occasional break aways for Manila, but he was very unlucky with his snailing strokes. Major Howell and Capt. Ball were not up to scratch.

Mr. Lyon and Mr. Fiddes-Wilson played sound games for Hongkong, while Mr. Cox had occasional bursts of brilliancy but Mr. Boyd was the life and soul of the team.

The goal scorers were:—
Hongkong.—Mr. Cox, 1; Mr. Boyd, 3.

Manila.—Mr. Nelson, 1; Mr. White, 1. Major Howell scored a third goal for Manila in the fourth chukka after the ball had sounded, but this goal was not allowed as in polo, the ball is considered "dead" immediately the bell is sounded in the last chukka.

It is hoped to make these meetings an annual affair, and Mr. White's ambition is to see Shanghai and Hongkong pay a visit to Manila next year to play a triangular tournament there.

The visitors return to Manila today.

Diphtheria—How it May Be Avoided

Diphtheria is usually contracted when the child has a cold. The cold prepares the child's system for the reception and development of the diphtheria germs. When there are signs of diphtheria in the neighborhood of children that have colds should be kept at home and off the streets until recovered. Give the child's throat a good remedy and they will not have to remain at home long. It also clears out the culture from the throat in a child's throat when it has a cold, and minimizes the risk of contracting diphtheria. For more information, consult a doctor.

LEAGUE FOOTBALL.

SATURDAY'S MATCHES.

Four matches in the first division of the Hongkong Football League were played off on Saturday afternoon, with the following results:—

Hongkong Club 3 R.G.A. 2
King's Regt. 6 H.K. Police 0
H.M.S. "Tamar" 2 H.M.S. "Ambrose" 1
Kowloon 1 South China 0

CLUB V. R.G.A.

This match was played at Sookun-poo. It was very closely contested and a very strenuous struggle resulted in the Club running out winners by the odd goal in 3.

Both ends of the field were visited in quick succession, but for a while neither set of forwards could gain any advantage, so sound were the defences.

Valentine opened the score for the Club with a fast shot close in, which gave Phillips no chance. The Club returned, but Frampton cleared. Couzens broke away for the Gunners but his centre went begging.

A few minutes later Deggrell equalised for the Gunners from a centre by Couzens. After the Gunners had missed two good chances, the Club went down. Begg struck the crossbar with a lofty kick and Valentine scored with a "header."

Soon after the Gunners had a shot at Rodger, who cleared safely, the Club went down and Forsyth added their third goal with a low shot into the corner of the net. There was no more scoring up to half time.

The second half was more strenuously contested by the Gunners who played all they knew to reduce the lead. But the Club were equal to the situation and by no means allowed them to have play all their own way. Good chances were missed by the forwards at both ends. After Begg had failed with only the goal to beat, Passos took the ball down and sent in a long shot.

McHugh rushed in, and meeting the ball sent it straight to Rodger, who could not hold it. Heartened by this success, the Gunners went all out for the equalizer and kept the ball in the Club half for quite a while, but the defenders kept them out.

KING'S V. POLICE.

The King's who are much fancied for league honours this season, were too strong for the Police, and scoring four times in the first half and twice in the second, won easily by 6 goals to nil.

The Police were greatly handicapped by the absence of most of their regular players, some of whom are on leave. All the new players needed a lot more practice before they can attain anything near to league form. They backed up quite a lot in the second half with Valentine, Pearson and Watson as the back bone of the attack but they were outplayed by the soldiers and never allowed to get dangerous. Swan was great in goal or the defeat would have been much heavier.

KOWLOON V. S.C.A.

This game was very closely contested and Kowloon just ran out winners by the only goal of the match.

Kowloon started the offensive but the Chinese soon got going and gave a lot of trouble at the other end. Townsend played a very sound game in goal and was equal to every situation.

After a long ding dong struggle Kowloon went away. Duncan received from Coumbes when close in and gave Lau Hing cheung no chance.

The Chinese played a strenuous game to the end but luck favoured Townsend, and he could not be beaten.

"TAMAR" V. "AMBROSE."

These two Navy teams played a fine game together. "Tamar" just won by the odd goal in 3.

Play opened fast. Going straight down Carroll beat Boulter and put the ball beyond Coysh's reach.

"Ambrose" equalized a little before half time, with Boulter out of the field owing to a twisted ankle.

"Ambrose" continued to play one man short throughout the second half and gradually the handicap told.

"Tamar" pressed for a long while, and then Brazendale sent beautifully across goal. Hill tapped the ball when well in, and beat Coysh with a fast shot.

CRICKET.

INTERPORT TRIAL.

Another interport trial match was played on the H.K.C.C. ground on Saturday afternoon. It was again a batmen's game, which showed clearly the Colony's lack of good bowlers. So far three trials have failed to reveal any fresh talent, and the Selection Committee have a very difficult task choosing a team to face Shanghai next month.

Saturday's trial was between teams captained by R.H.B. Hancock and A.E. Wood respectively. Hancock's side batted first, and putting up a stiff front against the bowlers, batted for nearly two hours and a half, at the end of which time they had a total of 235.

With only 50 minutes' batting to do, Wood's side opened their innings with bad luck, and when time intervened, had only 83 runs to their credit for the fall of five wickets.

Capt. Oliver and the Rev. Quick put in a fine innings together which yielded 93 before the latter was caught. Sayer also made a fine partner for Oliver and between the two of them the core was taken up to 141. Oliver was in excellent form and his batting was the feature of the game. He made a well compiled 77 before he was caught by Mitchell off Ramjahn's tricky bow.

Capt. Davies and Major Matthews also contributed useful scores, while Hancock was not out with 23.

For Wood's side, Stapleton (28) was the highest scorer. Others who contributed double figures were Wood (21) and Mitchell (20).

WATERPOLO.
GARRISON LEAGUE.

The 88th Coy. R.G.A. have won the Garrison water polo league. This afternoon the final match of the season will be played at 4.30, when the winners will play an exhibition match against a team chosen from the Rest of the League, prior to the presentation of trophies.

H. E. the General Officer Commanding (Sir John Fowler, K.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O.) will present the Gairgocin Cup and medals to the league champions at the conclusion of the game.

PAINFUL JOINTS.
In no disease does the blood become thin so rapidly as in rheumatism. Not only does it become thin but it is loaded with impurities—the rheumatic poisons. Without proper treatment these poisons increase, the joints inflame and swell and the patient becomes a cripple.

There are a number of methods of treating rheumatism, most of them aiming to keep down the rheumatic poisons until nature can build up the blood sufficiently to overcome them. But unfavourable conditions of cold or dampness may give the disease the advantage and a relapse or renewed attack follows.

Good, healthy blood increases the resistance to disease. It is easier to keep up this resistance by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, acting proper food, a cooling diet that does not agree with you and getting plenty of fresh air day and night, than it is to cure the disease after it gets a foothold. Keep up the resistance of your body to disease by these simple rules.

A brot, "Hobbies & Health," will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 66 Maclean Road, Shanghai. It contains all the latest information regarding rheumatism and other ailments.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are obtainable at all druggists or post free 9/6 per bottle, 8/- for 3 bottles, direct from the above address.

DOCTOR'S SILENCE.

MAN'S SUICIDE AFTER SHOOTING WOMAN.

Further light on the Soham shooting affair, which has caused a sensation in Cambridgeshire, was forthcoming at the adjourned inquest at Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, on William Clarke Turner, licensee and farmer.

Turner was found on his farm at Soham with fatal gunshot wounds, shortly after the discovery of Mrs. Olive Mabel Lawrence, the young wife of a Soham blacksmith, whom he was alleged to have shot.

Mrs. Lawrence, who is in hospital, had her left arm amputated as the result of her injuries.

"Don't nose." Mrs. Alice Fuller, of Lot Farm, said that Turner called at her house on August 15. He was downhearted and crying, and said he had a certain disease. He asked witness to fetch him a glass of water.

Mrs. Lawrence to settle things with him. He was afraid that Mrs. Lawrence would upset his home. Mrs. Lawrence came and denied Turner's allegations. She told witness that she did not want money, but an apology for a letter Turner had written to her.

Shortly after Turner and Mrs. Lawrence met, witness heard Mrs. Lawrence say, "Don't boss," and then a shot was heard. She found Mrs. Lawrence with her head bleeding.

Questioned by the foreman, Mrs. Fuller said she suspected some relationship between Turner and Lawrence. Turner had not threatened to shoot anyone, but said he wished he was dead and out of it.

DOCTOR'S REFUSAL.
Dr. Douglas Ridgway, of Addenbrooke's Hospital, spoke of Turner's wounds.

Asked by the foreman if Turner was suffering from disease, the doctor replied "You have no right to ask that question, and I refuse an answer."

The Coroner: We will leave the matter there.

David Fuller, housekeeper to Turner, said the latter was very worried about his condition.

The Coroner: Did you know there were any money troubles?

Fuller: Not then, but I have since heard it.

Gilbert Robinson, butcher, Soham, who saw Lawrence lying in the road, heard her say that Bill Turner brought her there and shot her. She asked witness to fetch her husband.

HIGHLY STRONG MAN.
Dr. William Edgar Carter, who had attended Turner for years, said he was kindhearted and genial, but of highly-strung temperament. He attended Turner for influenza last January. In his state worry would have a considerable effect.

The Coroner said the jury were only concerned as to what caused Turner's death, and had not to consider how he received the disease.

The jury returned a verdict of "Suicide while temporarily insane." A letter from Mrs. Lawrence to Turner was mentioned, but not read.

QUAINT FIJIAN.

KIND OLD CANNIBALS.

Everything to do with the South Seas, that distant world of romance, has a perennial interest. Books on the different islands and peoples are constantly appearing and the latest, "The Hill Tribes of Fiji" (Seeley, Service, 21s. net), is one of the most complete that has yet been published.

Many of the stories which Mr. A. B. Brewster tells are quaintly amusing. An old greybeard, in a reminiscent moment, had confessed to him that, long ago he did help to eat an Englishman.

"While I was pondering on the old gentleman's declaration and considering what I should say a slight silence fell upon us. One of the listeners, a neighbour and friend, desiring to show sympathy and not leave the last speaker out in the cold, exclaimed: "Well, well, we were all a bad lot in those days; as for myself, I strangled my old mother!"

On another occasion a white man had given a native a present of a tin of soap, telling him to make it hot. He did try to make it hot by putting it on the fire, with the result that it burst open and the contents scalded him. Far from being angry, he was delighted, ran to the white man and exclaimed: "Oh! Mr. Carew my friend, I cannot say how much I respect you white gentlemen! Nothing you have behaves in the ordinary manner; your guano is with a bang and so does your food."

Things sometimes were rather topsyturvy in Fiji. Once when the Acting Governor had given a dance and the convicts, as usual, had been had up, under a guard, to help with the washing of the plates, the warden got hilariously drunk. "The prisoners were dreadfully upset to think that he had so far forgotten himself, and were trying to quieten him and carry him home so that no scandal should fall upon the jail."

GERMAN REPARATIONS.

PARIS, October 21st.
The French Memorandum, on the subject of securing reparations from Germany, has been handed to the Reparations Committee.
The proposals favour a Committee of Guaranties, which will proceed to Berlin and impose upon the German Government measures for the supervision of revenue and expenditure, or the immediate stopping of the export of capital. They should also have power to prohibit certain measures to be determined.
It is proposed that the Committee shall be entitled to all information regarding German finances. Other proposed measures include strict financial control, and the placing of the Reichsbank under Allied control. Germany shall continue to levy at least 25 per cent. on exports, which, with customs and export duties, will be under the supervision of the Committee. Guaranties will be suitable if the Reparations Committee considers that Germany is not fulfilling her obligations.

HOME FOOTBALL.

LONDON, October 21st.
The inter-League soccer match was played at West Bromwich, in the presence of 20,000 spectators. The weather was fine and England defeated Ireland by two goals to nil.
England was nearly always attacking in the first-half, but the forwards were never really together and there was a lack of touch between the halves and the front line. The Irish backs worked hard to keep the Englishmen out and at the interval neither side had scored.
With the resumption, the game became faster and livelier, play swinging from end to end. The Irish attack, compared with England's, was disjointed, but occasionally dangerous. From a corner, forced by Mercer, Chambers netted a clever goal, after eighteen minutes play. To Irishmen strove gamely, but could make no impression on the Home defence. Four minutes from time, Chambers again scored for England.

[A cable message, dated August 20th, stated that Henton, a young engineering student, had accomplished a two-hour flight in a one-decker sailplane, in the Ithaca Hills, Germany. Henton subsequently declared that a longer flight was merely a matter of nerve.]
